Kid Friendly Christmas Baskets – Food was purchased and picked up from Fareway and Aldi's and delivered to the new Resource Center location at Penn Elementary School in North Liberty. There was sufficient food to prepare 87 baskets at an average cost of $37 per basket. Thanks to everyone who helped make this another successful year for this project.

Christmas Party – Thanks to Dave and Rita Roberts for again hosting our Christmas Party. It was a pot luck with a variety of delicious dishes. Everyone brought a gift and there was lots of fun with the Chinese Gift Exchange.

KCJJ Radio – Rob and Jolene Mesch did a wonderful and informative presentation on KCJJ radio talking about our North Liberty Optimist Club. They will do it again in February to cover our Pancake Breakfast.

Pancake Breakfast – Our annual Pancake Breakfast will be March 6th. Our chair will again be Jennie Garner with Darlene Smith and Sara Langenberg as co-chairs. Ticket prices will remain the same as last year and members have begun their work on soliciting sales. This is our biggest money-maker so everyone's help is greatly appreciated.

Valentine's Party – Our Valentine's Party will be held February 11th at 6:30 P.M. at the Brown Bottle. We hope everyone can attend.

New President – We are still looking for a new president for 2016. If anyone is interested, or know of anyone who might be interested, please contact Bruce Meyer (626-4072) or Darlene Smith (626-2939).
